THE GOOD LIFE

Those who are always striving for an easier way,
Forget to add the simpler things to their life.
All we want is a beautiful, natural day,
A day to look in wonder at the sky,
To count the stars on a clear night,
Or fall asleep to a gentle rain.
As we go through our daily strife,
May there always be a calm river of peace
To take away our anger and grief.
And may there always be a starry night,
To gaze on and wonder,
About our life and what we think.

— Irv Koehler

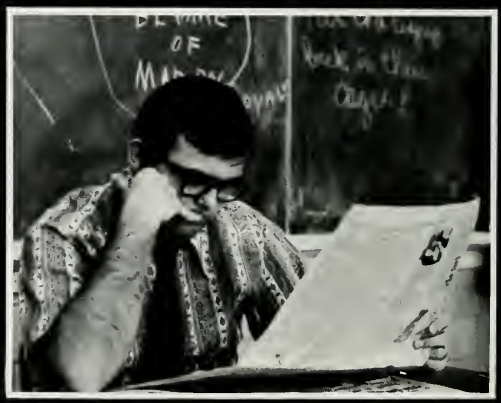
DEDICATION

We, the staff of the REFLECTION, dedicate this yearbook to the many memories connected with the people who have participated in South Adams High School. We have a great hope that these memories will help each and every-one of us to grow in mind and body.

These next few pages reflect some of the memories which we captured in pictures.



"A TIME FOR US"

Sex Appeal?

The Class of '72 has been hailed by many teachers as "The Zoo Class." This is due to the many pranks, outbursts of unusual conversation, and animal-like actions portrayed by the Seniors of South Adams. These are represented by nick names. Here are a few: Chic, Mad Dog, Bull, Head Dog, Cheetah, Dog-Head, Monkey, Weasel, Mole, Piggy, Animal, Turkey, Foxy, Bear, Mutt, Parasite, Leech, Beaver, Rabbit, Goose, Stud, and Big Cat!

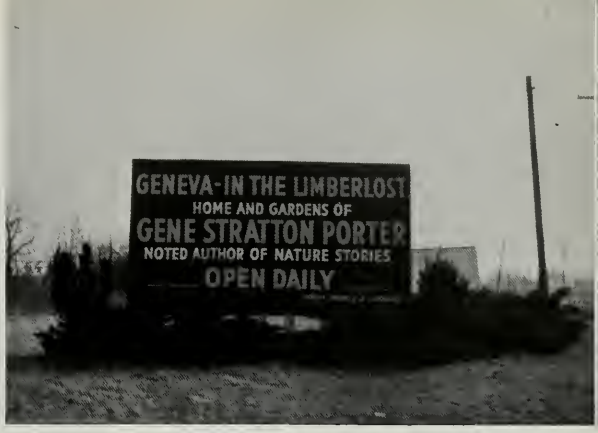
CONVOS GAVE WELCOMED INTERRUPTION TO CLASS DAYS

During the course of the year many varied convocations were scheduled for the enjoyment of the students. Some of these were in the form of short plays by the drama class. Other interesting convos were the American Panal of Women, John Brown University Choir, and the Indiana State University Percussion Ensemble.



We would like to express appreciation to the members of our community for always supporting our school activities and projects. The following people receive special thanks for once again making this yearbook possible.

Reflection and Telstar Staff

Journalism class is a new semester course at South Adams. The class is under the instruction of Mrs. Linder, and the class is in charge of producing the yearbook REFLECTION and school newspaper, TELSTAR.

Editor and Co-editor, Irv Koehler and Suanne Amstutz, along with the class have had many "unforgettable" moments in prefab 126. In order to meet the deadlines of both demanding publications, six students were re-scheduled to the second semester class.

Second Semester

Row 1: Lindy Lehman, Janell Amstutz, Denise Amstutz, Carla Lehman, Suanne Amstutz, Irv Koehler, Mrs. Linder. FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The FFA had a very busy year in 71-72. Gail Sprunger was elected sweetheart and participated in district competition with a pom pom routine. The FFA fed a hungry homecoming crowd of 1300 barbecued chicken from which they profited greatly. Junior and Senior members traveled to Chicago by train to the International Livestock Show which included boarding at the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Of course we can't forget to congratulate the "prima dona" trombones for their weekly exciting performances!

South Adams' own "rock group" once again had a great time playing at community functions and school concerts. These guys have a lot of fun along with their hard work.

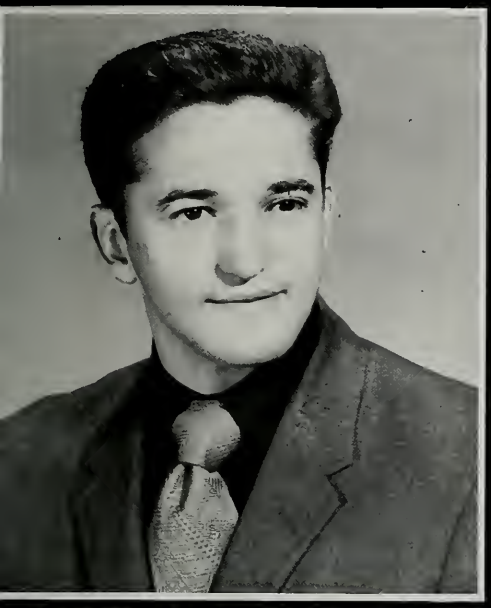
SPORTS THE S. A. WAY

Sports at South Adams has always been an asset to our school spirit and pride, and this year was no exception. Many young men dedicated themselves to making our program stronger. The teams at our school may not make history, but those who participated will never forget the hard work, times of anguish, and the moments of glory they experienced.

Coach Sekerak gives Ron Crider "encouragement."



Although Mr. Jerry Sekerak was with us for only a short time, he left behind many memories and lasting influences. We can never repay him for the time, energy, and devotion he put into our school, but we can be glad that we had a chance to know and to love him. Since sports were an important part of his life, we would like to dedicate this section to the memory of Coach Sekerak and all that he did for South Adams High School.

A man who we all loved,
A man we all will miss,
A man who was a great
football coach,
A man who was a great
wrestling coach
A man we all enjoyed being around,
Who helped us when we were down,
A man who gave everything
he could to make us feel proud of our school.
Who was this man that meant so much to us, who made us so proud to have him?
We all know, it was
Mr. Sekerak.

-Tex Weaver

God sometimes moves in mysterious ways,
We neither understand why or how,
But we must accept whatever His plan.
He has taken a truly great man from us.
Probably one of the most wonderful we have ever met.
But it is done,
And we must look to the future,
And pray that He will give us the strength to go on,
And thank Him for the short time we had to share
With a man we all learned to know and love.

The 71-72 Starfires had a very successful season, winning 5, losing 4, and 1 tie. This year the squad was lead by 18 "Super Seniors," the biggest senior squad South Adams has seen.

Steve Baker made the NEIC first team and received All State team honorable mention.

Alan Beitler and John Fulton were named to the NEIC second team for their outstanding performance for the Stars.

During the season South Adams held the No. 1 defensive team in the NEIC, but lost this position as a result of the last game.

Our Spiritmakers

Football cheerleaders from top to bottom: Denise Henkel, Deb Kuhn, Barb McKean, Faye Sprunger, and Karen Flueckiger. These five girls did a tremendous job in rousing Starfire Spirit this year by such means as Slave Day, Gold and White Day, and Hat's Off Day. Everyone joined in the fun of decorating the players' lockers and filling them with food. We can be proud of our team and students for a great year.

1971-72 Harrier Squad

This year's cross country team was coached by Mr. Bresnahan who led the two milers to ten wins and four losses. Coach Bresnahan built a strong team and had his runners physically prepared for the exhausting two mile course. For the third year, the Stars were able to capture the county crown. South Adams was once again host for the Limberlost Invitational meet in which there were ten entries. The Stars were able to place third and were backed by the entire Pep Club and the football squad. Dallas Liechty, a strong Senior with endurance, did a fine job as the number one runner in the pack, and he was backed by two other Seniors, Gregg Sprunger and Sam Beitler. Sophomore Jay Lehman represented his grade well, and the only Junior, Greg Moser, battled injuries to help insure several Starfire victories.

Varsity

Joyce, Viv, and Gaye came through with lots of school spirit during the exciting reserve games. These girls all have talent, and should have bright future in leading cheers.

After getting over "first game jitters," the freshman also had a great time supporting their team. Kendra, Ronda, Cheryl, Joyce, and Gwen are good prospects for future cheerleading at S.A.

L. V. Phillips Award

We're Proud of Our STARFIRES

Well the Starfires did it, and they did it tremendously. The spirit of the team, fans, and community just couldn't be matched anywhere else in the state. Other than our 22-5 closing record, S.A. went farther than any other Adams County team in tourney play. We were the third NEIC team to reach state and got farther than the other two teams. State Finals were an experience in itself. Although S.A. had the smallest enrollment of the Big 4, we had the largest and most enthusiastic group of fans! There were parades and speeches on the following day. Congratulations went to the team and Alan Beitler, who won the coveted L.V. Phillips Award.

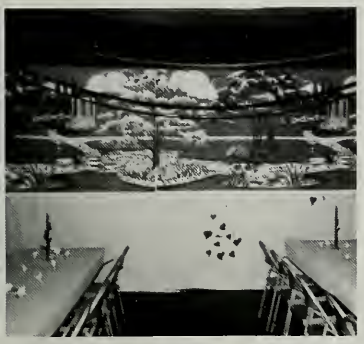
"YOU'VE GOT A FRIEND"

The 1972 Junior-Senior Reception was a very memorable night. Highlights of the evening were the Bluffton Swing Choir, the movie "Wait Until Dark," and John Ludy's presentation of awards. Mamy people had to be pealed off the ceiling as a result of the suspenseful movie, but laughter came when Denise Amstutz's, secret admirer came out into public view.



A Night To Remember

The music fades, the stars grow dim,
The night too soon
departs,
And though it dies, it
leaves a mem'ry
Flowing in our hearts.

A glow that is the symbol of the happy days we've known,
Of countless friends
and dreams come true,
Of three years that have flown.

Of three short years
that hurried by,
And to them now we cling,
As rather wistfully we reach,
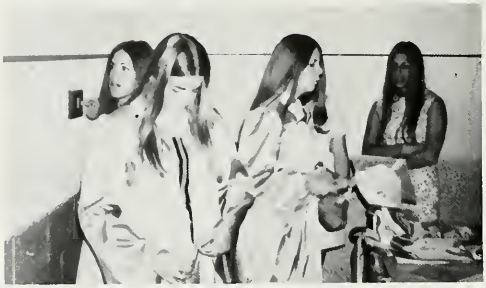
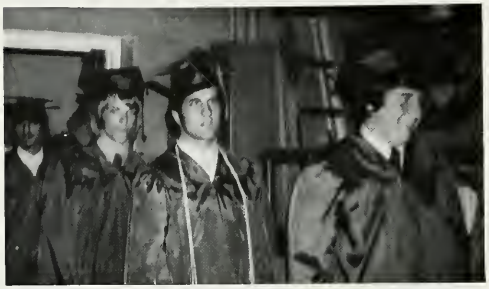
Our Prom, the final fling.

GRADUATION: THE END OF A





OH HAPPY DAY!

May 21, 1972 will always be remembered by us as the day we started our struggle in the world. Each of us will recall the hot evening when we marched on the gym floor up to the stage to receive that precious diploma. Then the thing we may remember most is the joyous celebration in the halls following graduation. It was a mixture of whoops, kisses, tears, and howls. Then afterwards we realize that each and everyone of us from that day forward would pursue his own course in life.

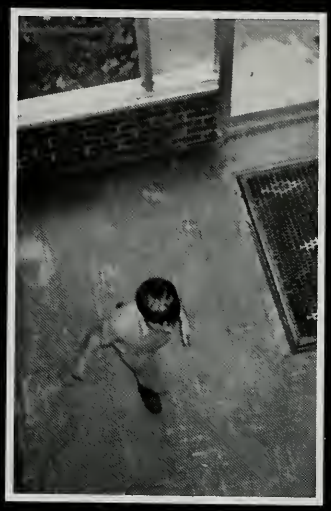
ELEMENTARY

"In education we are striving not to teach youth to make a living, but to make a life."

W. A. White

Shelly Besser, Laura Ellis, and Pam Brunner make a cookie house for the elementary children.

Mrs. Bowen leads a small group reading exercise.



Look out below!

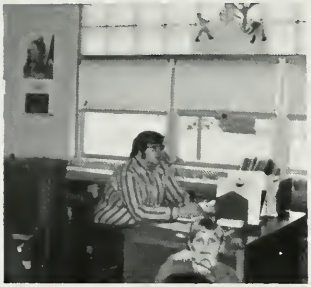
ELEMENTARY STAFF KEEPS BUSY



Cadet teachers gain a lot of experience by helping the classroom teachers for one period each day. At left Brent Sprunger is in one of Miss Doll's music classes.

WINNERS OF THE MUSIC BOOSTERS POSTER CONTEST

Faddy and Taddy

Faddy and Taddy had to go poddy,
Faddy and Taddy had to go baddy,
Faddy and Taddy couldn't find a poddy,
Faddy and Taddy went in their panny,
they told their Mommy she got Maddy,
She sent them to beddy without a cookie,
for a snacky.

Spring

I like spring because
The birds tweet and sing.
That is why I like spring.

Teresa Bollenbacher

Spectacles

My spectacles are big
My Spectacles are wide
My spectacles are like someone
A half a mile wide.

Kristy Moser

Rain

Rain...tiny drops of water
They come in the spring
I like rain.
God makes the rain.

Jill Beitler

The Bug

There wuns was a boy named Doug.
He looked like a bug. He played in mud.
He looked like mud.
That is old mud Doug.
Todd Nussbaum

Hokey Pokey

Hokey, pokey, Hankey, pankey,
I'm the King of Rankee-Jankee,
And I'm well, I thank ye.
